Board Approves Plaza Lease, Paving, Sewers

The board also approved a motion to install 300 feet of storm sewers on Spafford St. from Naber St. north to Lake St.

The only bid submitted for the 40 ft. strip of land adjacent to the plaza was from the American National Bank & Trust Co. The bid for the 99-year lease on the 40-foot strip contained the following provisions: Plaza developers would:

1. Install a 24" sewer line 697 feet from Orchard St. to Sequoia Creek at a cost of $6,000.00.
2. Graveling, grading, paving and maintenance of 40 feet of land leased.
3. Paving of 150 feet of the 30 foot roadway adjacent to the leased land with curb on east side at cost of $1,000.
4. Reimbursement to Village of one-half the cost of blacktopping the balance of the village parking lot with maximum reimbursement of $1,500.00.

There was some objection from Mayor Cunningham at this point, who said the bid from Liberty Asphalt Co. set the price for blacktopping of the village parking lot and the plaza at $5,100.00. The $1,500 quoted in the lease would not represent 50% of the cost, as agreed.

The $5,100 price included a two-inch layer of blacktopping, as was installed on the east half of the parking lot. Plaza developers plan to use a 1½ inch layer on the plaza property.

The lease was finally approved by the board, with four members voting Yea and Ray Toft passing. Roger Williams was absent. The Village board decided to have the blacktopping on the parking lot proceed with a 2 inch layer of blacktopping, the village to absorb whatever extra cost there may be. Work will start at once.

Tom Higbee of the American Appraisal Co. of Chicago explained a plan under consideration by the board to appraise all village property for insurance purposes at a cost of $900.00, with a continuing up-dated inventory at a cost of approximately $90.00 a year. The matter was returned to committee for consideration.

Roger Patzer of Applied Engineering presented preliminary plans and costs for a 16-inch cast iron sewer to be installed on Anita St. to service new construction by John Blackman. The matter was deferred until the next meeting.

The board approved a motion to reconstruct sewers on Harden St. to Victoria, installing an 8-inch sewer line.

Two ordinances were approved by the board, one an ordinance relating to the use of storm sewers, the other an ordinance limiting parking on Spafford St. to the east side of the street. It was explained that this was a provision of state approval of the paving. The street would have to be widened to 36 feet if parking on both sides of the street continued.

Improvement Assoc. Elects Julia Chonis

Julia Chonis was unanimously elected president of the Fox Lake Hills Improvement Association at a meeting of the organization last Sunday, October 18.

Mrs. Chonis has been secretary of the organization for some time. The group initiated the successful action to install sewers in Fox Lake Hills, and is now in the midst of a controversy with the Lake County Water District, which has moved to purchase the installation.

The Association has long been in the forefront of activities seeking to abate water pollution in Lake County.

In addition to Mrs. Chonis, Joseph Hens was elected vice president; Mrs. Lorren (Betty) Morris, secretary; Mrs. Charles (Gladys) Lindholm, treasurer; Edward Brunell, Director of Unit 3; two incumbents, Ernest Kominics, and Henry A. Kopp, were re-elected as Director of Unit 2 and Director-at-Large.

There were 101 votes cast at the election.

At the first board meeting of the new officers last Monday night, committees were appointed and the officers decided to retain William D. Hartnett as attorney. Mr. Hartnett has served as attorney for the group for some time.

Mrs. Chonis is running for the office of County Auditor on the Democratic ticket.

Conservation District Announces Projects

The Board of Directors of the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation District have announced a letterhead contest open to all grade and high school students in Lake County. Entries should be sent or delivered to the district office at 71 South Old Rand Road, P. O. Box 186, Lake Zurich, Ill., by Dec. 15.

Diagrams need not be letterhead size, and should include all phases of conservation including soil, water, woodlands and wildlife. Cash prizes will be awarded for the best entries.

Several special projects are being worked on by the Board of the Conservation District. One is the development of a Farm Pond Safety Kit. When completed the kit will contain certain information and material for "drown-proofing" a pond.

A film for loan to schools and civic organizations has been purchased, "Water Bills U.S.A." tells the story of our water supply and problems of the future.

A pilot project is under way to provide conservation literature for use in schools.

Central High Board Awards Contracts

Contracts for the science furniture and for the carpeting were awarded at the meeting of the Central High School Board of Education on October 13.

The science furniture contract was awarded to Kertawance on a bid of $27,274. The carpeting contract went to Lee Otzen on a bid of $5,700.

The board received a check for $660 for damages to one of the buses involved in an accident early in the school year.

The board granted permission for the county nurse to use the high school as a T.B. center.

Dad Writes, Son Is An Actor

Jeffrey Peter Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. McDermott Ryan, Antioch, will soon appear in his first Shakespearean role.

Young Mr. Ryan has a role in "Macbeth" at Western Illinois University. He played in J.B. Harvey and The Diary of Ann Frank in Antioch.

His dad writes musicals. Mac Ryan productions well-known in Antioch are "Nothing Ever Happens in This Town" and "All for One." He hasn't written one for his son yet.

Public Aid Rolls Drop in August

Illinois Public Aid rolls declined in August by a total of 1,906 persons, Harold O. Swank, director of the Department of Public Aid, has reported.

The Lake County total of all Public Aid programs for that month amounted to $129,971, paid to 2,447 persons.

SALES TAX COLLECTIONS

City sales taxes collected in April on March tax liability grossed $6,331,402 while county taxes for the same period grossed $407,992, the Illinois Department of Revenue reported last week.

Plane Crash Takes Lives of 3 Men

A plane crash last Saturday afternoon on a farm east of Antioch took the lives of three men.

Theodore F. Guttentberger, 49 years old, 917 North Gibbons, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Melbourn F. Rasmussen, 43, of 1100 S. Home Ave., Oak Park, Ill.; and Walter L. Donaldson, 39, of 5706 Lee St., Morton Grove, Ill., died in the crash.

The plane fell near Routes 45 and 173. Witnesses said it appeared to go into a spin and fell to the ground.

The Antioch Fire Department and Rescue Squad rushed to the scene and removed the bodies of the three men. Local arrangements were made by the Strang Funeral Home.

Antioch Librarians Attend Conference

Antioch Township Library will be represented at the Illinois Library Association annual conference in Chicago, October 22, 23 and 24 by librarian Miss Betty Lu Williams. Mrs. Polly Bruhn and the Board of Trustees will attend Oct. 23.

The theme, "Libraries must meet the changing patterns of our modern world," will be explored from many facets, with workshop discussion groups, demonstrations and resource lectures and speeches.

Members of the staff and library board of Antioch Township Library who attend the ILA Conference will hear Miss Jean L. Connor, Director of Library Extension of the New York State Library speak on the topic: "Knight-hood, Kingdoms, Empires and Islands," New York's experience with Public Library Systems.

The Children's division will be on "Book Selection—Problem? Pleasure? or Privilege?" which will be highlighted by Miss Virginia Haviland, a noted children's author, and Head of the Children's Book Section of the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

Another highlight of the conference will be a presentation by Dr. Robert B. Downs, Dean of Library Administration of the University of Illinois, on "American Political Humor and Folklore."

Punt, Pass & Kick Contest Saturday

Over 100 boys have registered to compete in the annual Punt, Pass & Kick contest sponsored by Lyons-Ryan Ford Sales in Antioch.

Eight-to-thirteen-year-old boys get the chance yearly to win prizes competing at the fine points of football. The prizes are professional footballs and football jackets. Fifteen in all will be given away.

The contest will be held starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, October 24, at the football field at Antioch High School. Boys may still pick up the entry blanks at the Lyons-Ryan salesroom. They must be returned, signed by a parent, by October 22.

Prizes are given in each category—punt, pass and kick—with boys of each age group competing against each other.

Children to Paint Downtown Windows For Halloween

Youthful "artists" from Antioch Grade School, Oakland and St. Peter's School will decorate downtown windows next week in the Halloween spirit.

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the window-painting by grade school children. Response of the merchants has been almost 100%. Herbert Stringer, chairman of the project, announced, 160 downtown merchants readily agreed to having the children paint Halloween projects on the windows with water paints.

Prizes will be given to the youthful painters and the schools they represent by the Chamber. These trophies and a consolation trophy will go to the schools, with the youngsters getting cash prizes. Originality will be a big factor in the judging, Stringer said.

The schools are assigning classes to specific windows. The Chamber of Commerce allotted one-third of the windows to each school.

The window-painting will start Tuesday, October 27. The Chamber hopes the project will promote the observance of a non-malicious Halloween.

"Outward Bound" Weighs Anchor

By Annie Mae

Once again the P.M.&I. raised the curtain of its Main Street theater; this time to present the old and eerie Sutton Vane mystery-comedy, "Outward Bound."

First act curtains part to reveal one of the most attractive set designs we have seen, with credits to Bob Koemoud, whose outstanding artistic talents also designed the cover for the programs.

Typical of drama and mystery both, the first act moves slowly, but picks up steam with the easy, natural wit of Dan Seyfarth portraying the seafaring Mr. Prior.

Garnet Oddsen certainly plays to perfection our idea of a real "snob" in Mrs. Cliveden-Banks "with a hyphen." Her aloofness to Mrs. Midget (the cockney charlatay) delightfully "characterized" by Valerie McElroy, presents some of the best scenes in the play.

No explanations were made as to why Joe Hunley stepped in as the Rev. Duke, but we didn't mind a bit having him turn his collar and appear out front once again.

Completing the cast was Homer LaPlant as the ethereal Scrubby, who almost seems to appear from nowhere. Joan Tanner as Ann and Ken Jandula as Henry add love interest, and have the difficult task of presenting the dramatic climax. Rich Irmen looks exactly like a Wall Street tycoon, and Trumann Garrett is a perfectly "heavenly" intermediary as the Rev. Thompson.

You still have this weekend to join all this talent in a thrilling journey into the hereafter.

ACHS Teacher Given Award

Bill Seemann, science and biology teacher at Antioch High School, received a certificate of merit from the Chicago Area Science Teachers Association Saturday in a ceremony held at the University of Chicago.

The awards ceremony was part of the association's conference held there. The award was given to those teachers and instructors who did outstanding work in helping and encouraging young people in science.

Seemann has been in the Antioch school system since 1956. He is responsible for the annual science fair put on by the high school and for the past three years has been instrumental in organizing the district science fair held at Lake Forest College.

Grass Lake PTA Hears Facts On School Referendum

Robert Hart, president of the Board of Education of Grass Lake School, explained the tax referendum being presented to the voters of the district on November 7 at a PTA meeting at the school last Monday night.

The referendum asks the voters to approve a $130,000 bond issue to construct four classrooms and a gymnasium. A second proposition on the ballot asks for approval of an increase of 18c in the educational tax rate.

The educational tax rate at Grass Lake School is at present 65c, the lowest in the county. Mr. Hart said the school would have a deficit of about $15,000 by the end of the school year.

Grass Lake School has no gymnasium. Half of the second grade is now housed in the old school house. An exceptionally large second grade necessitated splitting the class.

Of the four classrooms, Mr. Hart said one room would be used for the second grade; one room for a kindergarten; one room for music, administering tests, (such as use of the public health nurse) and other general uses, and an extra room for expected expansion.

There is no provision in the plans for a teacher's lounge, Mr. Hart said.

Hart announced that absentee ballots could be procured from Mrs. Charlotte Queen, secretary, and urged that anyone wishing one not delay.

The $130,000 bond issue, if approved, Mr. Hart said, would result in a tax increase of $6.00 a year on a $5,000 home. The educational tax increase would raise taxes $9.00 yearly on a $5,000 home.

A 25-Hour Day On October 25

"If there were only more hours in the day" is the frequent plaint of the busy person.

Sunday you get your wish. October 25 will be a 25-hour day. That's the day we change from Daylight Saving time to Central Standard Time.

What will you do with the extra hour? As it comes between 2 and 3 a.m., most people will spend it sleeping or perhaps in an extra hour of Saturday night revelry.

You need not stay up until 2 a.m. to set your clock back, of course. However, if you forget to set it back, you will be an hour early for church Sunday morning. You might even be an hour early for work Monday morning, a terrible thought.

Wisconsin returned to Central Standard time a month ago, making life complicated for many Antioch residents and for residents of near-by Wisconsin towns. The natural social and business exchange between the near-by towns in the two states become a yearly confusion of "your time or my time?" and "I forgot you were on different time."

Don't forget—set your clock back one hour Saturday night or Sunday morning.

Order Car Plates Now For Choice

Springfield—Secretary of State William H. Chamberlain has reminded motorists who wish to retain their present license numbers for 1965 that the deadline for reassignment of number is now less than two weeks away.

October 31 is the deadline established by law, Mr. Chamberlain pointed out.

About 150,000 of an expected 500,000 reassignment applications have been received so far, and have been processed, Secretary Chamberlain said. Mailing of plates, in numerical and alphabetical sequence, will be started December 1, he said.

Mr. Chamberlain also again cautioned motorists registering 1965 model passenger cars that they must answer "yes" to the question concerning the presence of seat belts in the front seat of the car.

The law now requires that, after June 30 of this year, no new car may be sold or registered in the state unless it is equipped with two sets of seat safety belts in the front seat, Secretary Chamberlain said.

Methodist Children Trick Or Treat For Unicef

Again this year, the Antioch Methodist Church School is sponsoring a drive for the UNICEF program.

The drive will take place on Sunday, October 25, from 3 to 5 p.m. As in the past two years, the children from the first through the sixth grades will meet at the church and go out to assigned areas in supervised groups.

After they have covered their area they will return to the church for a party and refreshments. People will be asked to contribute to just one group of callers.

These funds are used to supply food and medicines for needy children and mothers all over the world. Last year 78 children participated and $110.00 was collected locally. The contribution from Illinois was $115,801.04.

One cent can mean 5 glasses of milk, five cents can mean vaccine to protect five children from TB and 25 cents can mean 125 vitamin tablets for some undernourished child.

Benefit Races For Allendale

Once a year the Fox Valley Jockey Club charges forth from its stable to sponsor a Race Meet benefiting the Allendale School. The seventh Annual meeting is scheduled for Saturday, October 24, on Honey Hill, just off Army Trail Road in Wayne.

The eight race card starts at 1:30 with a Hunter's Pace, and before the steeplechase finale is run off at 5:00, anyone who has a hankering for a ride will have had an opportunity to do so. This includes youngsters as there will be several events exclusively for them.

Two races, the Ladies' trot and the Bar Fly special for men, have had to limit post entries in some years and a new creation, the Commuters Special, seems assured of having to do the same. Serious horsemen may feel obliged to bring their own mounts, but there will be ample horses for borrowing on the side lines.

Silver trophies and ribbons will be awarded to the victorious in the serious races and prizes for the others are best described as appropriate for the occasion. Food and beverages will be available on the course.

Following the meeting, the children are to be packed off and the parents will head for the Geneva Country Club in Geneva for a steak fry and dancing.

All proceeds for the day will be donated to The Allendale School for Boys in Lake Villa. The School is a year-around home and remedial grade school for boys from broken and inadequate homes in the greater metropolitan area. These funds will help defray the operating expenses of this private agency that cares for, educates and rehabilitates boys regardless of race, creed or nationality. More than 3500 boys have been helped by Allendale since the School's founding in 1897.

One of The Ballots

There are two proposed amendments to the State Constitution which people will be asked to vote on November 3.

One amendment calls for yearly sessions of the State Legislature. Chief plea of supporters of this amendment is that it would be easier to make up a budget for one year. It is inefficient, they say, to try to project budget-planning two years ahead. Governor Kerner supports the yearly sessions of the Legislature.

Yearly sessions, however, would mean increased expense to the taxpayers. Another objection is the possibility that yearly sessions would cause many excellent legislators to abandon their legislative careers. Many business and professional men would not be able to spare this much time from their duties.

The state legislature would then be turned over to professional politicians.

The Governor can call a special session of the Legislature whenever it seems necessary. So there seems no really adequate reason for changing the present system of biennial sessions of the legislature.

The second amendment to the State Constitution would allow the legislature to provide for the succession of state officials in case of emergency, as in the case of death during a nuclear attack.

Such provision should certainly be made. The lack of a Governor during an event such as a nuclear attack would promote chaos and could contribute to disaster.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

It's not too late for that annual pilgrimage into the brilliantly colored Lake Countryside to pay homage to the exercises in coloring conducted by Dame Nature at this time.

Each year the colors on the trees seem brighter and more varied, which could stem from the realization that each year there are fewer areas left in the county where Nature can work her color magic, fewer areas unspoiled by Progress.

A word of warning, however, if you are going into the countryside on a weekday to admire the scenery.

Don't be so engrossed in your admiring of the colorful trees and shrubbery that you are driving a car.

It's rather disconcerting to be admiring a clump of red and gold trees as you swing around a curve and suddenly find a school bus unloading youngsters just below the crest of the hill and hidden from the view of oncoming cars.

There have been few accidents this year involving school buses, but this isn't entirely due to the care and common sense of the bus drivers.

Too often they make their stops to pick up or discharge school children on blind curves or on hills.

It may mean that the children would have to walk a little further to their homes, but we would like to suggest that all school bus drivers be instructed to make their loading and unloading stops in locations where there is at least a 300 foot clear vision area in either direction.

One of the reasons the county tavern associations fought so hard against the proposed reduction in tavern operating hours was a rumble that consideration was being given to moving the legal opening hour of 5 a.m. back to 6 or 7 a.m.

This, of course, would not affect the vast majority of taverns, but it would hurt those resorts who depend for the bulk of their business on the early morning fishermen and hunters.

There has also been a rumor that some of the cities and villages were contemplating a 1 p.m. opening time for taverns on Sundays.

Officers of the various associations are confident that the tabling of the closing hour change by the Lake County Board of Supervisors will forestall further tampering with the operating hours, at least for the time being.

The recent dual appearances of Gov. Kerner and his Republican opponent Charles Percy in Lake County provided a much needed spark for the November 3 election campaign.

Both gubernatorial candidates attracted large turnouts at their multiple stops in the county with Percy outdrawing his opponent in most areas.

However, the enthusiasm for Gov. Kerner seemed to be a little more heartfelt and genuine.

Percy, who had to buck an impressive array of support for State Treasurer William Scott during the primary campaign in Lake County and their alienated many others because of his role in the legislative convention which dropped State Rep. W. J. Murphy from the ballot, is gaining strength in this Republican stronghold.

Percy's early campaign plans seemed to indicate he was resigned to writing off Lake County, but in recent weeks he has made adjustments in his schedule which have enabled him to make added appearances here and the new strategy seems to be paying off.

Ezra D'Isa, the Democratic candidate for State's Attorney, has found an unexpected ally in the Lake County Crime Commission because of the group's recent criticisms of State's Attorney Bruno Stanczak.

As an incumbent Stanczak has the advantage of the office, but there is also the disadvantage in that actions and decisions of the office can be misinterpreted or twisted to suit a particular group's own position.

Stanczak, incidentally, will be honored at a sell-out testimonial on Oct. 29, on the eve of the election.

Who is the crime commission, and what is its status? Are they an official group or do they just seem to be? Are they elected or appointed officials, and if so, by whom are they elected or appointed? The name tends to indicate they are a legally appointed commission, functioning as an arm of the Lake County government. We queried over one hundred persons about this, including the editor of one of our newspapers; politicians; business men; housewives; workers; several medical men, and in fact persons from all segments of our society here in west Lake County, and every one of them, without exception, thought that the Lake County Crime Commission was in fact a governmental branch, with no idea of who they were or how they gained office.

The fact is, they are nothing more and nothing less than a social club, with a state charter. They choose their own officers and members; and their statements and charges carry no more weight than that of other citizens, nor are they one iota more valid. Perhaps less, if the true nature of this group were known.

Coming so close to election day, Robert F. Fischel's bulletin tends to mark him and the Lake County Crime Commission as character assassins with political connotations. If this were not so, could not their baseless accusations have waited until November 4th? At that time the merit of their charges, if any there be, might be considered more objectively, and we are

Dear Editor:

Last night we had the great privilege of seeing the play OUTWARD BOUND at the PM&L theater and we think it was just wonderful. Kenneth P. Jandula, Valerie McElroy, E. Trumann Garrett and Harold W. Andrews were all just wonderful and of course the regular players were at their best as usual. It is really a treat to see this play—it holds your interest through the whole performance.

We hope that the PM&L will have another musical this year as the last two were so good.

How about "Oklahoma" or "Fair Lady"? We have seen these but would love to see these talented people play in either of these plays. We also hope that MAC RYAN is busy on another play, too, as such wonderful talent as his should be shared with others who have no talent but do appreciate others.

Straw polls taken hither and yon must be chilling all candidates a little these days. Seems that Mr. and Mrs. Voter have been traveling right along the middle road, and puts most of the races up for grabs so to speak. Adding to the confusion have been the nasty insinuations first from one side, and then from the other. Let's just suffice it to say, even if some heads will roll, please make it your business to keep yours and try to keep this the greatest nation in the world!

THE LATEST REPORT: Golden-garbed Rose Pechaty headed the delegation greeting Governor Kerner and his mobile office when he arrived in our town last Tuesday. What a shame our highest official couldn't see his way clear to greet either the governor or his opposing candidate, Mr. Percy. No, I couldn't find out who those two Percy gals were, but weren't they attractive? How's this for the most mobile triangle you ever saw! Dick Kleen (act. Lyons & Ryan Ford) was leaving the office the other day and driving past Stringer Motors used car lot was promptly smacked in the right front fender by a Corvair that decided to remove itself from the Dodge Boys!

Strange Bird Seen Again Near Antioch

That white-headed blackbird sighted by a resident of Felter's Subdivision has been seen again.

Ray Enzenbacher, Lake Marie, reports that he and his 9-year-old son David, saw the unusual bird as he was driving on Route 173 near Felter's Subdivision at about 5 p.m. last Monday.

Ray says he's something of a bird-watcher, and has never seen a bird just like this one. Yellow-headed blackbirds are fairly common, he says, though not in this area.

NEXT "UNSINKABLE MOLLY BROWN"

By Pearl Kapell

Congratulations to "Doc" Solar. Remember, he predicted delightful weather generally for October and November. The mushrooms said so.

Mushrooms, obviously, are not like daisies. They WILL tell. If we have them to thank for the glorious Indian Summer days just past, I'm all for 'em.

"Doc" Solar, incidentally, was swamped with telephone calls for some time after the story about his weather predicting appeared in the paper. Mushroom fans called to consult him on various matters pertaining to mushroom hunting in the area.

Of course, maybe Doc and his mushrooms aren't entirely responsible for the warm breezes we're enjoying. No cold wave could make much progress against the blasts of hot air being generated by campaigning politicians.

There is nearly as much heat being generated by supporters and opponents of Senator Goldwater as by the campaigning presidential candidate himself. Maybe more.

The hottest arguments stem of Goldwater's statements from various interpretations. Listening to some of them, it's not difficult to see why there are misunderstandings among people of the world.

On Kup's TV Show last Saturday night, a minister and William Buckley, editor of the National Review, argued the meaning of a few lines written by Mr. Buckley in regard to the John Birch society. Even though the paragraph was re-read aloud several times, the two men couldn't agree as to the meaning of the passage.

If we can't understand what we're saying to each other, even though we are all reared speaking the same language, how in heaven's name can we expect people from other lands to understand us?

EVERYBODY'S AN AUTHOR
Voters don't have to rely on newspapers and magazine stories to help them make up their minds as to which candidate to vote for—they can read his latest book to discover his beliefs.

Barry Goldwater's "Conservatism of a Conservative" has been a best seller for some time, and any voter would do well to read it before making up his mind.

Numerous books have been written ABOUT Lyndon Johnson, by friend and foe. Now, however, My Hope for America by the President himself is on the stands. You still have time to read both candidates' books before Nov. 3.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING

"A subscriber recently reported to The Enquirer that he had been taken by a book-salesman. He thought that he was getting a 24-volume set of encyclopedia as part of an advertising campaign. He found that he had signed up to pay $380 for various additional costs.

"Our advice is, don't deal with strangers who are out with marvelous offers without learning something about them, and don't sign any contracts without thinking it over several times. Compare what is offered with what you can do with merchants you know, or established firms which are not here today and gone tomorrow. When the slick salesman for books, sewing machines, new roofing or oil stock comes along get a case of writer's cramp, at least until you find out more about the proposition than his magic words provide."

How To Vote Orange Ballot

The "big orange ballot" measuring approximately 33" by 11" will be handed to every elector when he goes to his voting place on November 3, 1964. This separate ballot, printed on orange colored paper, is for the purpose of giving a voter the opportunity of voting for not to exceed 177 Representative candidates at an at-large election. For the first time in the history of Illinois or any state, candidates for the House of Representatives are running at a state at-large election and not from districts; at the 1962 and previous elections, the voters chose such representatives from 59 Representative Districts, each district electing three persons to represent the people of such district in the Illinois General Assembly.

The Illinois General Assembly met in special session in January, 1964, for the purpose of laying some ground rules for this forthcoming at-large election. Such rules provided that each of the two major parties would nominate 118 candidates at conventions held in Springfield on June 1, 1964; would use special orange colored ballots for such election; would provide special orange colored ballot boxes for the placing of such ballots as they were cast; and would provide special counting stations and counting crews for the tabulation of the Representative ballots.

As cumulative voting is not applicable at this election, the voter should be familiar with how he can cast his ballot at the at-large election on November 3. He is entitled to cast one vote for each of 177 different candidates. He may vote for fewer than 177 candidates but, if he does, each of the candidates for whom he votes will receive only one vote.

An X in the party circle (according to an opinion of the Attorney General of Illinois) of any political party will be counted as one vote for each of the candidates of that party. The voter who marks an X in the party circle may also cast single votes for other candidates listed under another party so long as he does not vote for more than 177 persons. If the elector votes for more than 177 candidates, his ballot will be "spoiled" and will not be counted.

Each voter has 177 votes, but he does not have to use all of them. He may vote for only one candidate if he chooses. He may also cast a straight party vote by placing an X in the circle next to the party name and thereby use 118 votes; his 59 remaining votes would not be used in such case. He may also distribute his 177 votes among the candidates of both parties, using one vote for each candidate voted up through 177 candidates.

A young author about to give his first talk before a literary group went to Tristan Bernard, French wit and playwright, for advice. He asked how he should wind up his lecture.

"It's very simple," said Tristan. "You pick up your papers, bow to the audience, and then go off on tiptoe."

"Why on tiptoe?"

"So as not to wake them up!" said Bernard.

Avon Players Present Tally-Ho

What happens when a government loses the papers on a military defense installation that is no longer needed?

The resulting confusing situations make up the hilarious story of "Tally-Ho", playing this week-end at the Avon auditorium in Grayslake.

Author of the comedy is Arthur Thorsen. Crystal Lake, professional producer, director and writer for Chicago radio and TV, "Tally-Ho" premiered last year at The Playhouse in Cary, Ill.

Mr. Thorsen got the germ of his idea from a news story of a cannon in England on the English Channel. One of several installed to repel the Spanish Armada, papers on it were somehow lost so that the government never took steps to deactivate it. The situations that result in modern England provide some rib-tickling entertainment.

Performance dates are Friday and Saturday, October 23 and 24, at 8:30 p.m., and Sunday, October 25, at 7:45 p.m., at the Avon Auditorium on Route 83, 3 miles north of Grayslake.

MOOSE TOPICS

Several members of the Antioch Moose will be hopping aboard a chartered bus that will take them to the Chicago Stadium tonight (Thursday, Oct. 22) to see the Ice Capades of 1964.

This is the evening that all Moose Lodges had set aside for their family night and the stadium was rented by them solely for this purpose. In all aspects it promises to be quite a evening.

CARD PARTY

The Legion card party was well attended by loyal members last Saturday evening at the Moose Home. Among those present were guests from the Elkhorn Moose Lodge No. 192. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schulz, of 528 So. Lincoln, Elkhorn, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Riese of Route 3, Elkhorn. Both the couples are Legionnaires of the Elkhorn Moose.

Fun, gaiety and laughter was the atmosphere disclosed by those attending and refreshments were served followed by dancing to the music of the old reliable (juke box).

BOWLING

An error was made in reporting the bowling news of last week. The Antioch Travel League will play the Harvard Moose at Zion Benton, this Sunday, Oct. 25, at 2:30 p.m. and not Zion Moose. Sorry, boys.

COMING EVENTS

On Saturday, Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. the Third District meeting will be held at the North Chicago Moose Home. A gala evening is planned, with refreshments, entertainment and dancing.

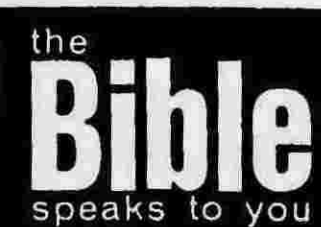

For Sunday, Oct. 25 at 2 p.m. the annual children's Halloween Party will be held at the Moose Home. Excitement and fun is in store for the young-uns, so Moose families bundle them up and follow the path leading to the Moose Home.

AWARDS OF THE WEEK

The big award of the week went to the one and only Dory Mueller. Congratulations, Dory.

REMINDER

Don't forget to attend all the meetings and be sure to sign up when you do as the most important attendance drive is going on right now. Also keep your family happy and take them to the Moose Home on Fridays for a dinner treat. Fish fry the specialty but of course they have meats too.

Sequoits Spoil Bear Homecoming Sat.

The Sequoits' offense really got rolling Saturday as they spoiled Elva-Vernon's homecoming celebration with a 45 to 20 victory on the losers' field.

Paul Lindblad set up the first Sequoit score when he fell on an Elva-Vernon fumble after the Bears had penetrated to the Sequoit 20 yard line.

On the first play from scrimmage quarterback Mike Lancaster hit Bernie Smith with a pass good for 23 yards. After an incomplete pass, Tyrone Walls, sophomore halfback, went right up the middle and banged his way to Elva's 23 yard line. Lancaster flipped a pass to Terry Schneider in the end zone for the TD. Stan Revell booted the extra point and the Sequoits led 7 to 0.

Elva came right back, however, and after recovering an Antioch fumble took only three plays to tack six points on the scoreboard. The PAT attempt failed and the first quarter ended with the Sequoits leading 7 to 6.

Antioch broke it open in the second period, scoring three times. Walls plunged over from the six yard line for the first score of the period and then Dave Fabry a few plays later went 32 yards for another TD. Just before the half ended, Fabry again broke loose, this time going 28 yards to boost the half-time edge to 27 to 6.

The Sequoits scored three times in the second half. Morgan went 27 yards for one score. Later in the period Morgan scampered 80 yards only to have it called back for a clipping penalty. On the next play Walls broke up the middle cut to the outside and went 92 yards for his second TD of the afternoon.

Walls wasn't through yet, however, as late in the fourth period he again broke free and went 35 yards for the TD. The Bears struck back twice in the final stanza, once on a pass play Jim Harkness to Lee Tichonor and later on a blocked punt and a run of 40 yards by Pat Smith.

Three boys who haven't seen much action thus far this season sparked the Sequoit offense. Tyrone Walls' three touchdowns led the Sequoits in scoring while Dave Fabry, out due to a summer injury for most of the season, came up with two TD's and some good running.

Mike Lancaster, filling in for Henning who was out due to illness, did a capable job at quarterback and may have earned the chance to see

Frosh-Sophs Are Blanked

"The boys just didn't display the same team spirit that they did in the 20 to 19 victory over Grant the week before." That was coach Andrew Hauptmann's explanation for the 33 to 0 trouncing his frosh-soph charges received at the hands of Elva-Vernon Saturday. It was Elva's homecoming and we just let down," he added.

The Sequoits missed the services of halfback Bill Sheldon and tackle Jeff Pachay due to injuries and sickness.

"Our ends and halfbacks were beating Elva's pass defenders on almost every play," Hauptmann said, "but our quarterback was unable to hit his receivers."

Hauptmann praised Glen Ofedahl for his fine work on defense as a linebacker. Ofedahl was moved to the line-backer spot from a defensive guard position two weeks ago.

"We have a tough game coming up this weekend against a speedy Warren team and it means that we'll have to work on our mental attitude to make sure we don't have a repeat of last week's let down," Hauptmann concluded.

more action in the remaining games.

Paul Lindblad, Mike Davis and Jim and John Sheppard were praised for their defensive effort in containing the Elva-Vernon attack. Coach Roy Nelson also praised Bob Flood for a fine game. Flood made several key blocks to spring the Sequoit runners free in their touchdown drives.

The Sequoits go to Warren Friday for their only night game. The Blue Devils, still hoping for a chance at the title were humbled Saturday by Grant 21 to 0. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

SPEAKING TO YOU

By John Burland

Director of Social Studies,
Rockford East High School

Karl Marx, the father of Socialism, was certain that his movement would sweep around the world. He had observed the wretched conditions of the working classes in Western Europe, the exaggerated greed of the industrialists, and he was confident that the condition of labor would get progressively worse. Capitalism, he felt, would become more and more rapacious; the bitterness between classes would become deeper and deeper, and eventually the miserable workers would rise in bloody revolt and take over.

Karl Marx as a prophet had as bad a batting average as the average National League pitcher. He missed completely on his guess that capitalism would not change. He missed completely on his prediction that the working classes would become increasingly desperate and that they would arise in bloody revolt.

Actually, the living standards of the workers in the U. S. and in Western Europe have risen to heights that would have been utterly unbelievable to Karl Marx, and capitalism has changed as much as the living conditions of the workers. Henry Ford decided just 50 years ago that if he were to mass produce cars, the workers must have wages that would enable them to buy cars. When he announced a minimum wage in his plant of $5 a day, he was denounced as an enemy of capitalism and a wild-eyed radical.

Socialism reached its peak in the U. S. in the election of 1912. It was still the day of the 72 to 84 hour week, the iron rule of wages was rigidly applied, child labor was still in vogue. Even so minor a reform as worker's compensation was fiercely opposed on the ground that workers would deliberately mutilate themselves in order to collect insurance. The American working force was sullen and resentful. To many workers, Socialism seemed the only way out for themselves and their children. Today, a Socialist on a soapbox would attract a smaller following than the American Nazi Party.

Even in Europe where the doctrine of the class struggle had taken deep root, the post war prosperity has erased the fervent Socialist movement. In fact the European workman has followed his American counterpart into a greater interest in cars, TV, and vacations than he has in doctrinaire politics.

It seems obvious that Socialism is not a mysterious disease that has come without reason and multiplies without cause. Socialism is obviously the product of poverty and hopelessness just as yellow fever was propagated by yellow jack. The only places in the world today where revolutionary labor movements are the rule are the blighted and backward nations where labor is completely destitute.

There are those who believe that every concession to the demands of labor is a retreat into Socialism. Every advance of the last 50 years has been opposed step by step by the reactionary and the die-hard. Today, when there is no whisper of class war, when American labor is interested in job security and protection against automation, there is a very noisy chorus which insists that Socialism is already here. To them reform and Socialism are identical. It is a curious position.

Has capitalism suffered because of these compromises? The statistics hardly bear out that conclusion. The accumulation of capital in such companies as A.T.&T., General Motors, and Standard Oil of New Jersey have never been equaled in all history. More millionaires were created in this country between 1948 and 1956 than in any other decade of American history. Today, industry shows its confidence in the future of America by plans for huge capital outlays.

The man who accuses LBJ of being a socialist shows an almost complete lack of understanding of either. Whatever Johnson may or may not be, he has no sympathy for Socialism or any desire to propagate it. Calling him a Socialist is like calling Billy Graham a headhunter or Cardinal Cushing a Mormon. It doesn't even come close to target.

Just how much welfare this nation wants or can assimilate is a matter of disagreement. It is a perfectly valid position to oppose any particular measure or program without apology. Only when a man screams Socialism or Communism at every attempt to improve our society he becomes a nuisance at best or perhaps a menace.

American business is not a proponent of Socialism. If it felt that LBJ had a socialist program, it would oppose him to a man. The fact that the business community has shown a substantial approval of Johnson, certainly discredits the shrill cries of "Socialism." Let us hear no more of this nonsense.

Pedestrians are the big threat to safe night driving in cities. They are difficult to see on poorly lighted streets, especially if they are wearing dark clothing. Headlight glare contributes to the danger. Use extra caution around tavern or night life areas. Keep your speed modest and stay continually alert and you will own the keys to safe city driving.

Reactors To Meet Monday, October 28

The October meeting of the Waukegan-Lake County Board of Reactors will be held Monday evening at 7:00 p.m. at the Wing 'n' Fin, 101st road going west, north of Rte. 12 and 120 intersection.

The program for the meeting will be Mr. Melvin E. Amstutz, Superintendent of Lake County Highways, Winchester Road, Libertyville, who will discuss with the Reactors, Affiliates and Associates the highway program for Lake County.

Among other items on the program will be the installation of James Ross, 2728 West Grand Ave., vice-president of Poe & Poe, Inc., a report on the recent Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards Convention in Chicago by President Charles Corman and a report of the Nominating committee consisting of Keith Leech, Zion, Dan McGaughey, Gages Lake, and Joseph Zorc, North Chicago.

Illinois Nurses To Meet This Week

More than 1,000 registered professional nurses representing 20 geographical districts will attend the 58th convention of the Illinois Nurses' Association Wednesday through Friday (Oct. 21-23) in the Sherman House, Chicago.

Abner J. Mikva, state representative from the 23rd district will discuss nursing in relation to legislation to protect and advance the health care of the public.

Other speakers will be Margaret E. Newton, dean of the school of nursing at Ohio State University; Shirley M. Thompson, director of nursing service at the U. of Oregon Medical School Hospital; Muriel Moss, R.N., of the Illinois State Pediatric Institute; Howard Klapman, M.D., Pediatric Institute; Franklin R. Fitch, M.D., Ill. Social Hygiene League; Freda W. Treptow, coordinator in nursing education of the Ill. Dept. of Registration and Education; and Shirl Conway, television actress who portrays head nurse Liz Thorpe on "The Nurses."

Trick or Treat
Halloween brings swarms of youthful trick and treaters to city streets where they become one of the yearly traffic problems. Often youngsters dart from behind parked cars in their various disguises. They don't have a ghost of a chance without YOUR super vigilance.

Stay alert for pedestrians during twilight and evening hours. Often they are hard to see, especially on dark streets and roadways. Stay alert—drive with care!

Clark Charges Salt Companies Fixed Prices

Chicago, Oct. 13, 1964 — Illinois Attorney General William G. Clark has filed suit in the United States District Court at Chicago, to recover treble damages in the amount of at least $10,200,000 resulting from a price fixing conspiracy engaged in by the major manufacturers of rock salt.

Attorney General Clark said that the defendants in the suit are Morton Salt Company, 110 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, International Salt Company, Clarksburg, Pa. (228 North LaSalle St., Chicago), and Diamond Crystal Salt Company, St. Clair, Michigan (6778 Northwest Highway, Chicago). Also named in the suit as co-conspirators were Carey Salt Company, Hutchinson, Kansas, American Salt Company, Olathe, Kansas, Barton Salt Company, Hutchinson, Kansas, Cutler-Magner Company, Duluth, Minn., Hardy Salt Co., St. Louis, Mo., Cargill, Inc., Minneapolis, Minn.

Attorney General Clark said that the principal purchasers of rock salt are state and municipal authorities who use the rock salt primarily for de-icing control on highways and streets and that the defendants and co-conspirators sell approximately 90% of all rock salt used in the United States.

Clark said that the complaint charges that the defendants and co-conspirators joined together in an unlawful combination and conspiracy in unreasonable restraint of trade and commerce in

For your own safety, wear something white when walking at night. A white handkerchief around your arm is effective or even a folded newspaper can be seen by an approaching motorist. Walk facing traffic on country roads where there is no sidewalk. Otherwise, stay on the sidewalk and cross only at intersections.

Your headlights mark your presence on the highway. Check them periodically and keep both of them in good working order. One defective light can spell real trouble. Mistaking a single light for a motorcycle could bring tragic results to yourself and others.

the sale of rock salt beginning at least as early as January 1, 1953 and continuing thereafter to the date of filing of this complaint. The defendants and co-conspirators met in the Minneapolis Athletic Club, among other places, several times during the conspiracy, conducted telephone conferences, and in other respects sought to effectuate the aforesaid combination and price fixing conspiracy.

Attorney General Clark said that on July 11, 1961, the United States of America instituted civil action in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota against the defendants and co-conspirators. That complaint charged that the defendants and co-conspirators engaged in an unlawful combination and conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce and trade in rock salt.

On November 4, 1963, the defendant, International Salt Company, entered a plea of nolo contendere and the court entered a judgment on such plea. Under Section 5 (a) of the Clayton Act such judgment entered on said plea of nolo contendere constitutes prima facie evidence in this proceeding against defendant International of the violations of the federal antitrust laws as charged in said federal civil complaint.

On August 6, 1964, after hearings and the presentation of evidence, the Court determined that defendants Morton and Diamond, in conspiracy with International and others, acted in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act as charged in the Federal Civil Complaint. This cause is now pending.

Attorney General Clark said that this suit is another step in his efforts to eliminate collusive bidding and price fixing conspiracies in the State of Illinois.

Clark said, "Every cent that is returned to the State of Illinois school districts or tax supported libraries is really a return of taxes to the citizens of Illinois. Those cases have another salutary effect which, again, is a saving of taxpayers' money, and that is, the public bodies experience more equitable price arrangements following the filing of this type of litigation." As an example Clark said that since the institution of the federal and state investigations of the rock salt price fixing conspiracy, the State Highway Department is receiving bids that average $10 or below for rock salt. Prior to the institution of the investigation, the state was receiving bids which averaged $16-$17 a ton.

New Provisions of 1964 Tax Law

A one hundred dollar deductible provision on personal casualty and theft losses was part of the 1964 tax law. As explained by E. C. Coyle, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue, the first $100 of each personal casualty or theft loss will not be deductible on Federal income tax returns.

Business losses will continue to be fully deductible, Mr. Coyle said. In cases where there is damage to a car used for both business and pleasure, the $100 deductible will only apply to that portion of the loss charged to personal use.

Assume in such a case that the business loss is $250 and the personal loss is $300. The $250 loss attributable to the business use is fully deductible. However, the new law permits only $200 of the $300 personal part of the loss to be deducted on tax returns. Mr. Coyle said that the property losses arising from fire, storm or other casualty of theft are covered by the law. Directions may be taken only on that part of the loss not reimbursed by insurance or otherwise.

Ike Endorses McClory As Congressman

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, twice elected President of the United States, has telegraphed Congressman Robert McClory recommending his re-election.

In a public announcement from his farm in Gettysburg to voters in the 12th Congressional District of Illinois, General Eisenhower declared:

"Two years ago I recommended that you send Bob McClory to Congress. Today I am happy to report that my faith in him has been fully justified by a fine record. The Nation needs a man of Bob's experience and ability in Washington. I urge you to re-elect Bob McClory to Congress."

Congressman McClory, in a whirlwind campaign for re-election following the long session of the 88th Congress which adjourned on October

2, also received support from other top Republican leaders, including former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. In urging McClory's re-election, Mr. Nixon stated: "You have served your district your party and your country with exceptional dedication and distinction. The Nation needs you in Washington and you deserve, and I am sure you will receive, a decisive vote of confidence from your constituents."

Congressman McClory's campaign has carried him throughout the 12th Congressional District of Lake, McHenry and Boone counties during the last few weeks. Accompanied by his wife, Audrey, he has appeared frequently at campaign rallies, Republican Headquarters and numerous public gatherings.

When he first earned election to the Congress in 1962 after twelve years of service in the Illinois General Assembly, Congressman McClory received 64% of the popular vote.

Central High School News

Friday, October 9, the following girls were elected as officers of the newly founded Library Aide Club. This club is responsible for the many new books catalogued, the ing accuracy in estimating revenues. Annual sessions without adequate legislative procedures and comprehensive budgetary controls, financial reporting, and legislative review of State operations would make for little improvement. Preparing 2 budgets each biennium is sheer labor.

(5) The public and business interests desire biennial sessions because they appreciate recurring periods of certainty during which, since the Legislature is not in session, it may be reasonably expected that the "rules of the game" will not be changed and there will be a period of stability.

(6) Annual sessions would mean that lawmakers would have to deliberate and defeat unsound tax measures every year instead of every two years. This would take time needed for other essential legislation.

(7) The annual session proposal is not necessary, because the Governor now has the authority to call the General Assembly into session at any time. At such a special session the Legislature can pass emergency legislation in the Governor's call by a two-thirds vote.

(8) The adoption of annual sessions with fiscal matters to be considered in the even numbered years could encourage the Governor to call a special session, or sessions, in the even years to consider other problems of government while the Legislators are present. This in effect could allow a session on everything each year.

(9) Only nineteen of the fifty states have adopted annual sessions. Nevada adopted annual sessions in 1960, but after one year of experience, abandoned it. California (which moved from biennial to annual sessions a few years ago) has found that the annual sessions have had little effect on deficiencies, which are now even greater in both numbers and amounts than when the system used was the biennial session.

Illinois Tax Facts

Voters at the November 3, 1964, election will have a proposal before them to amend the Illinois Constitution to provide for annual sessions of the General Assembly. The proposal provides that the session held in odd numbered years will be identical to that now held. But the additional session will be held in even numbered years (May and June) of shorter duration, which will be limited to budgetary and financial matters. The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois opposes this Constitutional amendment proposal for the following reasons:

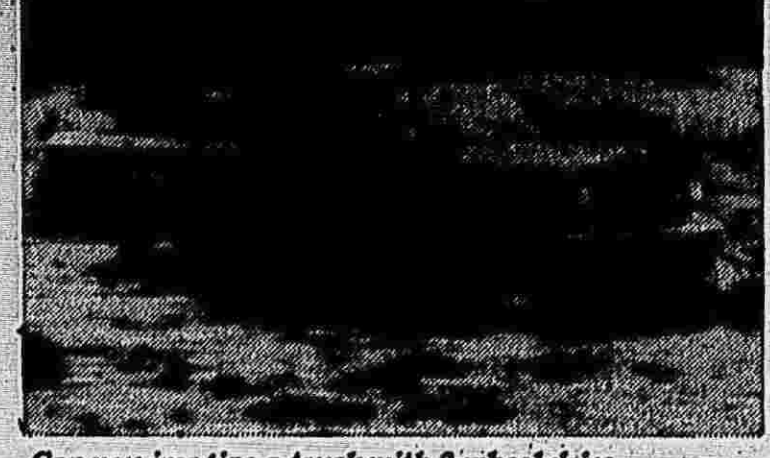

(1) There will be substantial increases in the costs of State government to the taxpayers if the Legislature meets each year—increases in operating expenses, Legislators' salaries and the number of projects outside the budget.

(2) Annual sessions will deter competent and qualified persons from seeking the office of Legislator. Can outstanding farmers, lawyers, doctors, teachers, and other business and professional people afford a further loss of 2 months from their regular offices or jobs when such absence means a direct loss of income?

(3) Annual sessions will mean a number of "lame duck" lawmakers will be casting votes on measures before the Legislature in even numbered years ("lame duck" is a term applied to lawmakers who were defeated for re-nomination at the April primary in even numbered years or who did not seek re-election). This would not be in the best interest of the public.

(4) While it may be true that it would be possible to estimate State revenues with more accuracy if there were annual budgets, it is also true that exercising more caution and restraint on the appropriation side of the ledger lessens the need for hairsplitting.

The 'Jeep' Gladiator with 4-wheel drive has twice the traction of ordinary pick-up trucks.

Can you imagine a truck with 2-wheel drive handling mud this deep?

The 'Jeep' Gladiator with 4-wheel drive can get through stormy weather and rough terrain that would stop any conventional 2-wheel drive pick-up. That's because it has twice the traction. 'Jeep' Gladiators plow through snow, slush through mud, sail through downpours and give better control on ice.

And because it is built to take it, a 'Jeep' Gladiator is worth a mint when you get ready to sell it. It holds its value because it stays versatile.

Go to your 'Jeep' dealer and test drive a 'Jeep' Gladiator. Notice its passenger car smoothness. Then find a hill. A steep one. Try it halfway in 2-wheel drive. Now throw the 'Jeep' Gladiator in 4-wheel drive. And hang on. You'll know then what separates other pick-up trucks from the "Unstoppables."

New kind of pick-up truck for twice the traction. 'Jeep' Gladiator with 4-wheel drive.
